HALL COUNTY ELECTIONS POLL WORKER NEEDED

We are looking to recruit 600 Poll Workers for the upcoming elections season
General Primary - May 24, 2022 & General Election November 8, 2022

Poll workers needed for the upcoming General Primary - May 24, 2022 and the General Election - November 8, 2022. Poll workers are paid for the time they serve. All workers must be at least 16 yrs old and residents of Hall County, though residents of neighboring counties might also qualify. Workers must be serious about working elections, reliable and committed. They will receive the necessary training, and will be paid for that time of training. The Elections Office is also in need of Spanish speaking poll workers to help better serve the growing Spanish-speaking electorate of Hall County.

Please consider being a part of the important elections process and help Hall County continue to provide secure, successful, and stress-free elections to its citizens.

For more information contact
Paige Thompson, Elections Manager, at 770-531-6945
or email: pthompson@hallcounty.org

NEED SOMEONE TO LISTEN....NEED SOMEONE TO CARE?

Clara & the foundation provides the ministry of empathetically listening & nonjudgmental loving care to women, to mentor, & to coach women in their personal life, marriage, & professional life. Clara's ministry rose from the mire of hunger, grief, homelessness, family addictions and loss. Her lonely journey began at age twelve, God's grace guided her in hardship across three Continents; the sufficiency of that grace delivered her to this ministry.

We Welcome All People, without prejudice to rights, races, culture, or religion.
